

"Piece By Piece -- Cenaculum!"

Text: Mark 14:14, "And wherever he shall go in, say to the owner of the house,
The Master saith, Where is the guest room, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?"

Scripture: Mark 14:12-16

In dealing with our theme for Lent, we have used places as the object of our sermons for each service. Tonight we are going to deal with a thing and not a place. The thing in question is the very familiar Upper Room. However, in order to prolong the suspense a little, I have identified it as the "Cenaculum." This is what the name of the room in which Jesus ate the Last Supper has come to be known as. It is an eating room of a Roman house in which the "Cena" or supper, or latest meal was taken. The room in which Jesus ate the Last Supper can be found today in the first floor of the Mosque En Neby Daud in Jerusalem. And it is called the Cenacle, or Cenaculum. There is a certain amount of intrigue involved in this story of Jesus securing the Upper Room for the last meal. When we realize that people were out to Jesus and He was very acutely aware of it as well, we can see that this plot does justice to a mystery novel.

We realize of course that Jesus was in Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover, and His disciples remind Him of this and ask Him where they should make the necessary preparations. So He sends two of them into the city looking for a man carrying a water jar. Now this may seem like an impossible task to look for a man carrying a water jar on his head in all of the mob that must have filled Jerusalem. But when we realize that the carrying of water was considered women's work, and no self-respecting man would normally consider carrying a water jar, then we realize that it became a very simple task to go to a certain place and to look for a man with a water jar on his head. And this they did. But we must also look at it from the angle that Jesus must have pre-arranged this meeting ~~of this~~ with this man. Jesus was not to do things hap-hazardly and especially in these last days. He had very deliberately planned His moves and it is an almost certainty that He wanted to eat this one last meal with them. Luke's Gospel tells us that His words at the beginning of the meal were, "With desire I have desired to eat Passover with you before I suffer." This would mean then that He had deliberately brought them to this time and this moment where He could share these final intimacies with them. It was also a Jewish custom that pilgrims coming to Jerusalem could ask a homeowner for the use of a room for the Feast. It was also customary for Rabbi's to use a room to eat this meal with his pupils. There were many of these rooms built on top of houses and kept primarily for this purpose. They had a stairway going up the outside, so it did not disturb the homeowner when the guests arrived or departed.

So the disciples were instructed that after they had located the man carrying the water jar, they were to follow him to his destination, and then to inquire where the guest room was. The password seems to have been, "The Master saith, where is the guest room where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?"

This type of asking also lends itself to the thought that these plans were ~~pre-~~arranged.

When we consider this story isn't it rather ironic that there were two separate and distinct times that Jesus arrived in ~~Jerusalem~~ a town that was filled to capacity, and the two results were alike and yet were dissimilar. The first time was when Jesus was being carried inside His mother and He arrived in Bethlehem and there wasn't a place for Him to be born properly. The second of course was His arrival in Jerusalem for the Passover and there was room for Him. <sup>Upon</sup> His arrival into the world there was no room for Him. But before His departure from this world, room was found for Him. Strange isn't it?, that when He arrived as a King, ~~there~~ no decent quarters could be found for Him. But when He departed this life, He was treated like a criminal and provided with a good last meal?

John tells us in the book of Revelation that Jesus says, "Behold I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him and he with me." This is the invitation that He extended to that householder whoever he may have been. This is the invitation He is extending to each of us. We have partaken of that Supper, and have in actuality supped with Him. But have we truly now opened our Christ our paschal lamb has been sacrificed. let us therefore, celebrate the festival, not with the old leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

PERSONAL TESTIMONY

OF

Ralph C. Link

I am the youngest of five children. I was born just prior to the onset of the Depression. Our family was very poor. My father was an alcoholic and my mother was a very religious person who was searching for the Lord. During my childhood she did her best to teach me the things of the Lord. Later in life she came to a personal relationship with Him.

I grew up in the Evangelical and Reformed Church where salvation by grace alone was not preached nor taught. I knew all about Jesus, what He did, how He lived, His miracles, His death and resurrection, but I didn't know Him personally.

My life had many ups and downs and all the while I was attending church and striving with my good works to please God. At a very low point in my life when we were deeply in debt and my wife and three children were all ill, I came to the crossroads. I watched a Billy Graham Crusade on television from some distant city and the message he preached seemed to be directed right at me. I wrestled with making that commitment to Christ, but didn't. The next afternoon and evening at work on the 4 to 12 shift I came to the conclusion that I needed to make that commitment to Christ. It seemed like there was no other choice if life was to have any meaning. That night when I came home from work at 1:00 A.M., I laid face down on the living room floor and told God that I couldn't live my life in my own strength and I accepted the gift of salvation from my Savior Jesus Christ. My life has never been the same.

Through several meaningful circumstances I was called by God to serve Him in the Christian Ministry and to help spread that wonderful message of salvation through the shed blood of Jesus Christ. What a wonderful and rewarding time it has been and I give Him all the praise for my salvation and the opportunity to serve Him.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

Ralph C. Link

I believe the Bible, both the Old and New Testaments to be the inspired inerrant Word of God. I believe the Bible is the complete revelation of His will for the salvation of men and it is the final authority for the Christian faith and life.

I believe in one God, who is eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

I believe in the Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ that He is true God and true man. I believe that He was born of the Virgin Mary, that He lived in sinless life, that He performed the miracles recorded in Scripture, that He died on the cross as a sacrifice for our sins, that He bodily arose from the dead, that He ascended on high where He is at the right hand of Almighty God as our intercessor.

I believe in the Holy Spirit and that He comes and indwells each believer at the time of conversion. I believe that He lives in each believer to lead, to instruct, and to convict so that a believer may live a more godly life.

I believe that through the shed blood of Jesus Christ and through His resurrection, this is the only ground for justification and salvation for all who receive Him. A Lord and Savior and to such as receive Him, they are born of the Holy Spirit and become children of God.

I believe water baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of the Church but are not means of salvation.

I believe in the personal and premillennial and imminent coming of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I believe in the resurrection of the dead, for the believer to resurrection of life and joy with the Lord, for the unbeliever to resurrection of judgement and everlasting punishment.
